

THE BALLOT CONTEST.

GOSPEL AND GUESSES ON THE GREAT BATTLE OF NOVEMBER.

Whipped in the North the Radicals are Looking Southward.

Pete Cooper on the Greenback Vote.

The President Softens on South Carolina.

The Sec. of War—Military Officers Disgusted with the Service—The Campaign using on Vigorously.

October, 23.—Troops are arriving daily. Thirteen companies are now in Columbia, and other parts of the state. The officers are expected to enter active service immediately and anticipated an attack on the state line. They express their alarm on learning the condition of affairs here. Everything is perfectly quiet throughout the state. Affidavits affirming peace and submission are received daily. The campaign is conducted vigorously by both parties. The so-called rifle clubs have disbanded. The colored militia are still organized.

THE NEGROES RIOT.

White South Carolinians appealing to General Butler for protection.

Charleston, Oct. 23.—The riotous demonstrations of the negroes are posed to be the result of the Cain Hoy affair. It is reported from various portions of Charleston county that a serious demonstration of armed negroes at Mount Pleasant village, opposite the white residents, will petition General Butler for troops.

THE RULE OF THE RAYONET.

It is to be applied to other Southern States, not to the border.

Special dispatch to the World.

Washington, October 10.—Reports are in circulation that the South Carolina policy of the administration is to be applied to the states of Mississippi and Louisiana, and perhaps other states of the south. The reports are up to date, Mississippi and Louisiana to the democrats, and it was understood that no serious fight would be made for them in November. At that time Indians, New York, New Jersey and Connecticut will all be considered neutral, as far as the election is concerned. No man thinks that the process resorted to by the democrats of South Carolina will ever be allowed to take his seat in the United States. This is our deliberate judgment.—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

Judge Thurman is in Washington.

He says that the democrats are not yet conceded that state to the republicans, as a matter of course from the start, the republicans could never have carried it. He now says that there is not the shadow of a doubt but that Ohio will go democratic for the next election.

COOPER ON THE GREENBACKERS.

New York, Oct. 24.—An interviewer has this to say of Mr. Peter Cooper and his views:

In Mr. Cooper's opinion the strength of the greenback party is far greater than many think. Some agree in principle with the independents, but, having votes, they unwisely conclude to save them—or, in other words, not throw them away, which they imagine they would do by supporting Cooper and Cary. They seem to believe that it is a choice between two risks. Anyhow, they wish to cast their ballots for candidates they imagine are likely to win. Mr. Cooper remarked that nine out of every ten persons he met except those of the independents, but owing to the thraldom they are kept in by old political associations they are likely to vote against their interests, and it may be in many instances against their convictions. He could not, however, say that the forces given were such a fair or just proportion as might apply to the community at large, for it was not at all improbable that the generality of people he habitually came across entertained his own views, and they were the only correct ones, on the paper he was quoting. He was on the highest grounds of public duty when he was determined to remain in the field to the last, and it was to him a source of regret that neither the managers of the republican nor of the democratic party had recognized him as the only man worthy for the evils under which the country suffered. Nothing can be more certain, said Mr. Cooper, than the fact that the contradiction of the currency has been followed by a reduction of all values, so that a wrong had been inflicted upon the entire business and property of the nation, and that there can be nothing more important than to find out and remove a cause that is bringing bankruptcy and ruin on millions of the most industrious and enterprising of the American people.

SOBER SECOND THOUGHT.

The First and Last Testimony in South Carolina Affairs.

Special dispatch to the World.

Washington, October 19.—Senator Roberton, of South Carolina, had an interview with the president to day on the situation in that state. Mr. Roberton informed the president that the rifle clubs had now disbanded, there were no negroes in the state. The president said that if the clubs ceased interfering with republican organizations at the republican meetings, and refrained from any attempt at coercing the negroes, he would take no further action. He said that he would not be allowed to keep the troops in South Carolina until after the election, so that the negroes should exercise the right of voting their sentiments, and if any of them desired to vote the democratic ticket, they should be protected by the law.

He also told the president that he would go to South Carolina in a day or two, and that he had determined to use all his efforts to promote harmony and good feeling between the two races and secure if possible an orderly and peaceful election.

The senator also spoke to the president concerning the raid which Messrs. Patterson and Worthington are making upon some of the better class of federal officials in South Carolina. He said he would present the president to remain Mr. Edward, of the Boston, Massachusetts, whom they are opposed to because he does not fail to their plans. Senator Roberton assured the president that the raid which Messrs. Patterson and Worthington are making upon some of the better class of federal officials in South Carolina, he said he would present the president to remain Mr. Edward, of the Boston, Massachusetts, whom they are opposed to because he does not fail to their plans.

Senator Roberton also spoke to the president concerning the raid which Messrs. Patterson and Worthington are making upon some of the better class of federal officials in South Carolina. He said he would present the president to remain Mr. Edward, of the Boston, Massachusetts, whom they are opposed to because he does not fail to their plans.

THE EVENING CEREMONIES.

The evening attending the crowning of the queen of love and beauty in jewel hall, this evening, was interesting and imposing.

Mr. R. J. Kane, of Baltimore, the successful knight who represented Delaware, chose as the queen of the evening Miss A. P. B. Taylor, of Washington, D. C., and Miss Mary B. Taylor, of New York.

The queen was dressed in a magnificent white satin dress, trimmed with lace. After the coronation ceremonies, there was some vocal music by negroes, an address by Hon. J. J. Stewart, which was succeeded by dancing, which continued until a late hour.

BUTLER'S FRENCH ROMANCE.

A French girl from the Widow Butler.

Washington, October 20.—Gen. Butler in one of his late speeches said that he would open a paragraph in the history of the war which had never yet been made public, and which he had received from the war department, that there was a probability of Louis Napoleon endeavoring to seize the recapture of New Orleans. A large French fleet was then lying in the West Indies and Napoleon was only

THE DAILY CONSTITUTION

VOL. IX.

ATLANTA, GA., TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 24, 1876.

The Atlanta Daily Constitution.

Printer for City and County.

of State, The State of Official Proceedings of City and County, published by authority.

largest Circulation, City, County and State-Digest Registration.

GENERAL TRAVELING AGENT.

T. M. ACTON.

H. H. PARKER.

DEMOCRATIC NOMINATIONS.

FOR PRESIDENT:

SAMUEL J. TILDEN,

OF NEW YORK.

FOR VICE-PRESIDENT:

THOMAS A. HENDRICKS,

OF INDIANA.

PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

FOR THE STATE AT LARGE:

A. H. LAWTON,

JOHN W. WOFFORD,

ALTERNATE,

L. J. GARTRELL,

H. D. TWIGGS.

PROFESSOR ELECTORS:

1st District—A. C. H. BURKE, Alternate, T. E. DAVENPORT, of Glynn.

2d District—R. E. KELLOGG, of Clay.

3d District—J. L. SWANSON, of Thomas.

4d District—J. M. DUPREE, of Macon.

5th District—W. H. HARRISON, of Stewart.

6th District—J. C. TURNER, of Twiggs.

7th District—F. D. DUMFRIES, of Spalding.

8th District—W. A. SPENCER, of Fulton.

9th District—L. C. COOPER, of Wilkes.

10th District—W. M. MCKEEVER, of Butts.

11th District—J. N. DODD, of Hall, Alter-

F. L. HARRISON, of White.

FOR CONGRESS:

MILT'N A. CANDLER.

WHERE is the young men's democratic club. It should be at work for Candler. Every day between now and the 11th will count.

At the late election in Consecutious

2,242 persons voted against erasing the word "white" from the qualification of voters. The amendment was carried by a vote of 20,955.

For the first time in the history of the country the department of agriculture and the southern cotton exchanges agree about the current cotton crop. Ten per cent decrease of 400,000 bales, as the figures agreed upon, making the crop 4,200,000 bales.

Mr. MARKMAN, the radical candidate for congress in this district, endores the infamous oppression of South Carolina. Every true man in the district should roll up his sleeves and go to work to best Markman. He is the candidate of the negro party.

The New York Herald wants to know if any one is green enough to believe that President Grant's proclamation would have been issued if all the white citizens of South Carolina were republians and all the colored citizens democrats? This presents the master in a nutshell.

The New York Tribune is weakening in its belief that Hayes can carry New York. Here is one of its latest paragraphs:

There ought to be no risks taken in Governor Tilden's election. Here is he at his mortal health. He knows every county and almost every town in the state down to the last record of vote. He is a skilful, watchful master in the art of politics and as alert as he is sagacious.

The New York Tribune confessed that the campaign is "an un-comfortably clear case of tip and tuck," the Hartford Times frankly admitted that the democrats think so too; for their votes will slip in the bud the radical hopes of more plunder, and they will tuck away the plunderers when they can't get any more money.

The centennial tournament was a great success pecuniarily. Large delegations were present from Maryland, Delaware, Virginia and other southern states. The cash admissions were 161,364—a figure exceeded only by the 257,000 cash admissions on Pennsylvania day. It is estimated that at least 90,000 were from the three states we have named, including the District of Columbia.

It is believed that the vote in New York this year will be larger than ever before, cast, and may possibly reach 900,000. This should not discourage the democrats, for on the heaviest previous vote the democrats won, as well as in two of the three next highest. Look at us as we will the chances appear in its favor of Tilden carrying the state.

Even Morton's organ, the Indianapolis Journal, admits: "Take it as whole that the election was a fair, and unconstrained expression of the popular will, and as such the result will be accepted without dispute by the men of all parties." Justice requires us to state however that the Journal made this admission before the back districts were heard from.

The registration in New York city indicates that the vote will be exceptionally great. On the two first days 116,998 names were registered, against 68,638 last year and about 98,000 in 1872. Two days yet remain for registration, and it is probable the total will top up 165,000. A full vote in New York city means a democratic majority of not less than fifty thousand. It was only thirty thousand last year.

At a recent meeting of the board of directors of the Cincinnati Southern road orders were given to the contractors to begin work at Danville and build towards Cincinnati. The road lacks six miles of being completed to the Kentucky river, which, when finished, will open the road 100 miles from Louisville on the Ohio river. The directors expect to have the road completed and in running order from Cincinnati to Chattanooga by the first of May.

It is the right of any citizen who desire to do so to present to the members of the legislature the name of any Georgia statesman he may think worthy of their suffrages for this high position.

Mr. MARKMAN says in his address about Bryan: "It is not pretended that he (Bryan) has stolen anything, nor that the government lost by him." If the fifth district elects Markman we may expect him to be easy on Belknap.

COL. CANDLER MUST BE ELECTED.

We desire to impress upon our people the absolute necessity that exists for Col. Candler's election to congress. There must be no misapprehension on this subject. We say to the people of the 5th district that the control of one of the three departments of the government will in possibility hang on the election or defeat of Mr. Candler in this district. The democratic supremacy in the house is ready endangered. The best information obtainable puts the control of this body of congress in the hands of a half dozen votes.

About one month ago, a number of western politicians and those westerners are acute observers—by correspondence and otherwise, caught in the drift of political eminence, and published the following table, as the probable complexion of the next house. It is hard to see in what particular's table is unfair or partial.

The republicans have evidently made up their mind to throw up the Hayes and Wheeler sponge, and concentrate all their strength on the fifth and second congressional districts.

All the military power of the government in Georgia in the day of the election is to be used in these two districts, and the great loss to the Hayes and Wheeler ticket throughout the state is to be attributed to intimidation. If the republicans should happen to carry the next house this would be the corner-stone for a contest in Marcham's and Whidbey's districts, and be the means of aiding them to get aside a good majority.

The time for foolishness is passed. We must get down to solid work now on the Markham question. He must be beaten by 5,000 votes.

FACT AND COMMENT.

INGRASSI doesn't seem to be too argue as he did.

A GAIN of one per cent on the whole will carry Ohio for Tilden.

OCHILISHAW of crowd disease is said to go to Philadelphia.

VANDERBILT has eleven children. No show for cousin.

The COURIER des Etats-Unis calls it "a chemise rouge," and thinks Morton's about waded it through.

The president's proclamation has put a damper on the target excusus customary in New York.

In view of the people of the free states one of whom in this country shall be carried by the boy.

So that the estimated majority as the democrats figure it, will be only 17. But since this table was prepared and published, two of the states mentioned therein have had congressional elections: Ohio and Indiana. It is estimated in the table that we would have 10 votes in Ohio—we really won only 8? In Indiana we are credited with 5 votes—we won only 4, and in the elections in two states we have lost 3 votes, and the republicans have gained 3—making a change of six votes in the democratic estimate and reducing the democratic majority to 11 votes.

It will require then a loss of only six more votes to throw the house into the hands of the republicans, if the above estimate is correct. Shall Georgia turn one of these votes? Shall the 5th district—the capital district of Georgia—furnish one of these votes? It must not do it.

HENDERICKS has carried his state. Hayes has barely saved his, and there is no doubt that Tilden will triumphantly carry it.

SATORI THURMAN writes to a friend in Washington: "Had we known strength in Ohio we could have carried the state, but we will do it."

The COURIER DES ETATS-UNIS

TRADE.

Admitting that the eastern question is to be settled by a general European war, the question becomes an interesting one. What effects would such a war have on our material interests? An old proverb says, "It is an ill wind that blows nobody any good," and many believe that the good in this case would fall to this country. The northwest would doubtless gain from such a struggle, for her breadstuffs and provisions would be needed at high prices. Russia and a part of Turkey are exporters of wheat, and a war that may involve these two countries would cause a heavy advance not only in wheat, but in all other grains that can be substituted for it. And so with pork. A late Cincinnati paper says the men are anxious for the European war to hold off until they lay in a supply, while the farmers pray for it to begin forthwith. This exaggeration sufficiently illustrates the situation. In case of a general war the grain and pork states would reap a harvest of gold.

Fortunately the south is well supplied with corn and fairly so with bacon. We would have greater cause for thankfulness if the war should become general. We would also have additional reasons for pursuing a similar agricultural policy in the future—a policy that makes us independent of the combinations of the rest of the world, and insures to us plenty and prosperity under all circumstances. Think of what our condition would be if we had to exchange cotton at present prices for corn and bacon at war prices!

The cash receipts of the centennial up to the 14th instant were $2,665,601.75. The North American says that "the permanent retention of the main building is likely to be witnessed since the movements in the city will be limited to the 10th of November." The twelve republican congressmen who are elected received $14,540, votes or 90 per cent less than a majority of the total. This is a shaggy, ugly, and disorderly crowd.

CINCINNATI ENQUIRER: Ohio's total vote for congressmen in the late election was 691,360. The twelve republican congressmen who are elected received $14,540, votes or 90 per cent less than a majority of the total. This is a shaggy, ugly, and disorderly crowd.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN calls upon Hayes to resign the governorship of Ohio. But Hayes remembers the bad luck of Clark, who left a shaggy thing for prospects, and is now out in the cold.

Russia is taking steps to promote cotton culture in Central Asia, where the annual production is about 400,000 pounds. American cotton is to be introduced.

Now that the mercurial Tom Collins has been roosted to a crisp cinder in Le Moyne's cremation furnace at Washington, John Dough respectfully claims the second place.

Two utterances by Commissary General P. B. Slocum, at Arlington, Mass., 1874: "I am a Republican"; "I am a good Republican". (Louie applauds.)

NEW YORK SUN: The attempt to carry South Carolina for Chamberlain and Hayes is born of the desperation of Grandiss, trembling on the verge of ruin. Grant's proclamation should be the death of the system which it was fabricated to sustain.

The official return shows a democratic majority of 7,000 at the recent Indiana election on the 10th of October. Yet nine republicans and only four democrats were elected. Great Gerrymander.

CINCINNATI ENQUIRER: Ohio's total vote for congressmen in the late election was 691,360. The twelve republican congressmen who are elected received $14,540, votes or 90 per cent less than a majority of the total. This is a shaggy, ugly, and disorderly crowd.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10. The republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE NATIONAL REPUBLICAN was right in its estimate that the democrats would have a majority of 11 votes. On the 10th of October, the republicans carried 11 votes, and the democrats 10.

THE

The Atlanta Daily Constitution.

BATTLE EVE HYMN.

Hold commands, all the bugle notes
And other sounds that greet us,
As we thrill in music death
Upon the midnight air.

2d. The bugle notes the pines,
The battle-note greets the world;

3d. As for us, an' through the gloom and shine
As much as our legions sort.

4th. Our country, our country's own!

5th. The world upon its knees now
Calls upon her children now!

6th. Up for her—her—her!

7th. Up for the land!

8th. Up for us, we—

9th. Up for our men, our men!

10th. Up for our men, our men!

11th. Up for our men, our men!

12th. Up for our men, our men!

13th. Up for our men, our men!

14th. Up for our men, our men!

15th. Up for our men, our men!

16th. Up for our men, our men!

17th. Up for our men, our men!

18th. Up for our men, our men!

19th. Up for our men, our men!

20th. Up for our men, our men!

21st. Up for our men, our men!

22d. Up for our men, our men!

23d. Up for our men, our men!

24th. Up for our men, our men!

25th. Up for our men, our men!

26th. Up for our men, our men!

27th. Up for our men, our men!

28th. Up for our men, our men!

29th. Up for our men, our men!

30th. Up for our men, our men!

31st. Up for our men, our men!

32d. Up for our men, our men!

33d. Up for our men, our men!

34th. Up for our men, our men!

35th. Up for our men, our men!

36th. Up for our men, our men!

37th. Up for our men, our men!

38th. Up for our men, our men!

39th. Up for our men, our men!

40th. Up for our men, our men!

41st. Up for our men, our men!

42d. Up for our men, our men!

43d. Up for our men, our men!

44th. Up for our men, our men!

45th. Up for our men, our men!

46th. Up for our men, our men!

47th. Up for our men, our men!

48th. Up for our men, our men!

49th. Up for our men, our men!

50th. Up for our men, our men!

51st. Up for our men, our men!

52d. Up for our men, our men!

53d. Up for our men, our men!

54th. Up for our men, our men!

55th. Up for our men, our men!

56th. Up for our men, our men!

57th. Up for our men, our men!

58th. Up for our men, our men!

59th. Up for our men, our men!

60th. Up for our men, our men!

61st. Up for our men, our men!

62d. Up for our men, our men!

63d. Up for our men, our men!

64th. Up for our men, our men!

65th. Up for our men, our men!

66th. Up for our men, our men!

67th. Up for our men, our men!

68th. Up for our men, our men!

69th. Up for our men, our men!

70th. Up for our men, our men!

71st. Up for our men, our men!

72d. Up for our men, our men!

73d. Up for our men, our men!

74th. Up for our men, our men!

75th. Up for our men, our men!

76th. Up for our men, our men!

77th. Up for our men, our men!

78th. Up for our men, our men!

79th. Up for our men, our men!

80th. Up for our men, our men!

81st. Up for our men, our men!

82d. Up for our men, our men!

83d. Up for our men, our men!

84th. Up for our men, our men!

85th. Up for our men, our men!

86th. Up for our men, our men!

87th. Up for our men, our men!

88th. Up for our men, our men!

89th. Up for our men, our men!

90th. Up for our men, our men!

91st. Up for our men, our men!

92d. Up for our men, our men!

93d. Up for our men, our men!

94th. Up for our men, our men!

95th. Up for our men, our men!

96th. Up for our men, our men!

97th. Up for our men, our men!

98th. Up for our men, our men!

99th. Up for our men, our men!

100th. Up for our men, our men!

Drugs and Chemicals.

Relief for the Amulet.

Oils! Oils! Oils!

LAND OIL.

SPINOLE OIL.

MACHIN OIL.

SPHINX OIL.

LUBRICATING OIL.

LINSEED OIL.

Ae carry the largest stock of oils in the State and the measure is eight pints to the gallon.

HUNT, BANKIN &amp; LAMAR,

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS.

50 cases Axe Grease

of best quality, reduced price.

HUNT, BANKIN &amp; LAMAR,

WHOLESALE DRUGGISTS.

We keep always in stock at the lowest market price.

Soda, Peppermint, Allspice,

Ginger, Cloves,

Nutmeg, Cinnamon Bark,

Saffron, Aniseed,

Madder.

All carefully selected.

C. H. SWIFT, A. T.

FOR O. H. Jones and W. D. Luckie,

DALLAS IN MEDICAL AND WOODEN BURIAL CASES.

A PHYSICAL VIEW OF MARRIAGE.

THE MARRIAGE OF THE SECRET.

DR. BUTTS.

DISPENSARY.

ST. LOUIS, MO.

DR. STEPHENSON.

